Summary	An awareness workshop on the “National Digital Library of India” (NDLI) was organized by the NDLI Club, Rajkiya Mahavidyalaya Chinyalisaur. The Club members explained that the main objective of the National Digital Library is to make knowledge accessible to every person in India. The Government of India's Digital India campaign aims to acquire knowledge and books through this Digital Library developed by IIT Kharagpur. Apart from this, details about the registration process and how one can be part of the NDLI Club were also discussed. Apart from this how one can search books on specific subjects, question papers of competitive examinations, video lectures, etc. was also discussed. Jatin, a B.Sc. first-semester student, shared his experience of how information can be obtained from the digital library. He said that using NDLI, he downloaded PDFs of many books in a short period, and how he was able to clear his doubts. All teaching staff and students were present in the workshop.
